

VERISARIO TAPPED

Keith Verisario, president of All-Security Insurance Agency, has been named president of Wine Sergi Insurance in Naperville. All-Security and Wine Sergi are part of the Naperville office of Acrisure, a national group of independent agencies offering insurance, risk management and group benefits. "I'm honored to have been selected to lead Wine Sergi into this next chapter," Verisario says. "We will continue to build on all that has been accomplished thus far. Filling the shoes of my friend, Dan Sergi, is a challenge I do not take for granted." Verisario began his career in 1999 with All-Security, an agency started by his father, Paul.

HEROES' WELCOME

State Rep. Anthony DeLuca recently hosted his second annual veterans appreciation picnic. The purpose of the picnic is to express gratitude to those who have served in the armed forces and have protected and preserved our freedoms. "Veterans made sacrifices for our safety and freedom that we must not take for granted," DeLuca says. "They deserve our thanks every day." Among the 80 guests in attendance was Lisa Aprati (pictured), chief of staff to Chicago Heights Mayor David Gonzalez.

BASEBALL LEGEND

The National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame has awarded Patrick A. Salvi the first-ever Tommy La-sorda Legends Award for contributions made to the game of baseball. A Chicago trial lawyer, Salvi is the owner of two professional minor league baseball teams, the Schaumburg Boomers (Frontier League) and the Gary Southshore Railcats (American Association), and a college wood-bat franchise, the NorthShore Navigators, located near Boston. The Boomers won the Frontier League Championship in 2013 and 2014. In 2015, the Navigators were named the Futures Collegiate Baseball League Organization of the Year. The Railcats won their third league championship in 2013.
