

Experience with a Record of Results

Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard P.C.

Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard P.C. has made a conscious effort to selectively grow our team by adding talented, top-notch litigators who can maximize recoveries for our deserving clients, which include more than 245 cases with a result of $1 million or more.

Brian L. Salvi joined the firm in 2013. He concentrates his legal practice on cases that involve personal injury, products liability and medical malpractices. Since joining the firm, Mr. Salvi has obtained noteworthy results at trial, including a $50.3 million jury verdict on behalf of a young boy who suffered a brain injury at birth, and a $17.9 million jury verdict on behalf of a 47-year-old Lombard woman who was hit by a truck.

As Emerging Lawyers Magazine was about to go to press, we were shocked and saddened to hear of the death of Elizabeth R. Olszewski (pictured above) in a car accident on February 9, 2020 in Yorkville, Wisconsin.

“Elizabeth was a very promising young lawyer with a very bright future. She was as kind and sweet as can be, but tenacious and meticulous about her work. It breaks my heart that we will never get to see the wonderful things Elizabeth was destined to accomplish for her clients,” said Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard Chairman and Managing Equity Partner Patrick A. Salvi. “We will miss seeing Elizabeth’s smiling face every day. But her infectious warmth has touched all of us and will remain in the fabric of Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard.”

We extend our deepest condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of Elizabeth during this incredibly sad time.

Aaron D. Boeder joined us in 2010, focusing his practice in the areas of medical malpractice, catastrophic injury, mass torts and wrongful death law. In 2019, he was part of a legal team that obtained a $19.5 million settlement for an Iraq War vet who was seriously injured by a forklift at McCormick Place Convention Center.

Since joining the firm in 2012, Andrew J. Burkavage has played integral roles as a member of legal teams that have produced noteworthy results for clients. One of them was a $4.5 million resolution of a case that was settled on the eve of trial on behalf of a young man who was severely injured in a fall from a balcony.

Rob L. Kohen joined us in 2014. He focuses his practice in the areas of personal injury, wrongful death, car, truck and bicycle accidents, construction negligence and medical malpractice. In 2018 and 2019, Mr. Kohen was named a Rising Star by Illinois Super Lawyers and has been recognized as an Emerging Lawyer.
